CHRISTMAS EVE.
MERRY Christmas to all.

No band concert at Emma Square this evening.

No BULLETIN to-morrow. Too many good things in one day would not do.

JOVIAL Sam Allen, accompanied by Mrs. Allen returned to Honolulu on the Mariposa.

Mrs. R. J. and Miss Agnes Creighton arrived in the Mariposa on a short visit to the islands.

Hon. James P. Lesesne, U. S. Consul at Melbourne was a through passenger by the Mariposa.

ATTEND church to-morrow morning. Plenty of time to feast and be merry, afternoon and evening.

THE Consuelo and S. G. Wilder both arrived in San Francisco the day the Mariposa left. They had mails on board.

Only a few more left of those choice Writing Desks and cheap Push Albums at the HAWAIIAN NEWS CO.,
25 Merchant street.

ALL government offices will be closed to-morrow.

NEARLY all the stores in town will be open this evening.

THE Y. M. C. A. book-keeping class will not meet this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hind and family of Kohala returned on the Mariposa.

THE Christmas festival for the Chinese Sunday school will be held this evening.

Hon. W. C. Parke who has been indisposed the past week is now much better.

Mr. J. O. Carter returned to the islands on the Mariposa looking a perfect picture of health and happiness.

FINE fresh frozen oysters specially ordered for the holidays at H. J. Nott's Beaver Saloon. Leave orders early.

THE Hawaiian News Company and A. M. Hewitt have our thanks for late papers, and Purser Smith for news favors.

CAPT. J. T. Nicolls of H. B. M. S. Cormoran has been made an honorary member of the Hale Nana (House of Wisdom).

THERE will be a fine Christmas dinner with special menus at the Hawaiian Hotel, Christmas day, from 5 to 7:30 p. m.

SPECIAL music by a large choir will be rendered at the 11:15 o'clock service at St. Andrew's Cathedral to-morrow morning.

C. J. FISHER's store will be open this evening, and if you desire to obtain bargains in holiday goods that is the place to visit.

THE bark Forest Queen and brig J. D. Spreckels are on the way to Honolulu with cargoes of merchandise, valued at $31,790.

Mr. J. P. Bowen of the European, will provide a grand Christmas dinner for his patrons to-morrow. Read the bill of fare elsewhere.

THE S. N. Castle leaves for San Francisco this evening. A mail will be forwarded by her which closes at the Post Office at 4 o'clock.

THE Metropolitan Meat Market, King street, will have a fine display of beef, mutton, turkeys, sucking pigs, chickens, ducks, etc., in their new store this evening.

Mr. Leslie, the popular caterer of the Hawaiian Hotel bar, will dispense Christmas turkey and other luxuries to-morrow, to the numerous patrons of that favorite hostelry.

THE S. F. Examiner of December 9th says: G. N. and A. S. Wilcox, the millionaire sugar-growers of the Sandwich islands, arrived last night from the East, and are at the Occidental.

ONE of the sights in town this evening will be the City Meat Market, Nuuanu street, with a grand display of meat, etc. Mr. Tinker, the proprietor proposes to outdo himself this year.

YESTERDAY was Dr. John S. McGrew's sixty-fifth birthday anniversary. The Royal Hawaiian Band serenaded him this morning at his residence. Many happy returns of the day doctor.

News has been received from Maui that on Tuesday last, George Brooks and Punohu had quarrel, which resulted in the former stabbing the latter, inflicting a bad wound in the neck. Brooks was arrested.

E. R. NEWMAN and wife were passengers on the Mariposa. Mr. Newman was formerly drug clerk on the U. S. S. Vandalia, and has already assumed a similar position with the firm of Benson, Smith & Co.

THE friends of Mr. G. D. Gilman of Boston, will be sorry to learn that he has had to have his left arm amputated. For some time past he has been suffering with a disease of the arm. At latest accounts he was doing well.

Mr. H. M. Sewall, U. S. Consul at Samoa, was booked to leave San Francisco on the Mariposa, but at the last moment received instructions to return to Washington to give evidence before the committee on Foreign relations.

R. J. CREIGHTON, Esq., agent for the New Zealand Government at San Francisco, was a through passenger by the Mariposa. Mr. Creighton has gone to New Zealand and Australia on business of importance, which will probably keep him there two or three months.

R. M. S. MARIPOSA.

The Mariposa arrived at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, from San Francisco, having been detained one day waiting for the English mails. She brought 27 cabin and 14 steerage passengers for this port, and had in transit for the Colonies 41 cabin and 44 in the steerage. Her cargo was valued at $137,915 manifested as follows: Honolulu $18,332, Australia, $105,608, New Zealand, $13,261, Fiji Islands $668, Apia $46. She left for the Colonies at 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S FIRE.

About twenty minutes past nine o'clock Saturday night, a native discovered fire in a house corner of Kinau and Piko streets. An alarm was turned in by Mr. F. P. Hastings which was responded to by the fire department. Mrs. John H. Brown owns the house and it was occupied by Mrs. Thiele. The latter with her family were in town at the time. The house was burned to the ground nothing but a chair being saved. The furniture was insured for $2000 and the house for $1250.

THE FAIR.

Pressure on our space compels a full report of Saturday's fair to be deferred. The interior of the Rifles Armory, where it was held presented a most magnificent appearance. It was a sight rarely seen in this city. The different booths appeared to do a thriving business, and the net proceeds should show a large sum, to add to the funds of the Honolulu and Hoola Society. The Royal Hawaiian band played during the afternoon and evening.

MR. GRAENHALCH'S AFFAIRS.

By the Mariposa letters were received from W. H. Graenhalch, dated San Francisco, in which he states that his father's estate had been settled, and his brother was on his way from the East with the money. He found that some one of his creditors had tried to garnish the money. Mr. Graenhalch further states that he was about to leave for London, and on his return come to the islands, pay 100 cents on the dollar and settle down here for good as the climate suited him.

This morning Mr. T. G. Thrum took possession of Graenhalch's store, believing he had the right to do so under the mortgage.
